

San Luis Obispo Camera Club COURIER FACT SHEET April 2011

Next Meeting Thursday April 14 - 7 p.m. MAIN PROGRAM

Africa by Beverly Cohen. Beverly has been interested in photography ever since getting her first Brownie at age eight. Joining the Camera Club motivated her to spend more time with her digital cameras. She had the good fortune of taking several photogenic trips. This trip, though not luxurious, captured shots worth sharing.

Field Trip Show: Ralph George will present images from inside the Performing Arts Center and other Cal Poly architecture which members shot on February 20. Image of the month from the Cambria Tide Pools trip went to Dagmar Collins.

Show and Tell: The challenge for April is "Remember When." Members may bring 3 images on any topic, however.

Suite 1 The contact information for Bill Shewchuk of Suite 1 in the last Courier was in error. They are: phone 602-7123 and e-mail Suite1morrobay@gmail.com. Classes range from "Photo 101" to "Go Pro in 3 Days" and are taught by professional artists and photographers.

Next Field Trip Saturday April 16 - 8 a.m. Spring Wildflower Tour & Picnic

Meet at the south end of Shell Creek Road just after turning left off of Highway 58. Watch for a SLOCC Picnic sign on a white van on your left. Bring your own blanket, lunch, beverage and...camera.

Submit your images to Lynda Roeller at the May 5 meeting or e-mail them to her at lmroel@aol.com. Your images will be shown at the June 16 meeting.

Next Competition Thursday April 21 - 7 p.m.

Please bring your competition images to the April 14 meeting or send them to Jenn at aikiusersbcglobal.net. Due to concerns expressed by members over the past couple of years regarding the scores given by judges at competitions, the board has appointed a committee to review the process.

Bob Canepa and Mike Baird are the featured artists at Light Workshops in Los Osos during April for the launch of their new gallery. For more information go to www.lightphotographicworkshops.com/EpicLightStudios.html.

Carol Di Nolfo won second place in a juried show at the Paso Robles Art Association.

Alice Cahill and Don Henderson each had photos accepted into a juried show at the United Methodist Church. Awards will be given April 1.

Your SLOCC Board - Members are currently being sought to serve. Specific jobs are not determined until the first board meeting of the new year in July, although several members are willing to keep their current positions.

Beth Sargent resigned due to other commitments, and Dawn Beatty has already volunteered to take over as webmaster.

At the February board meeting, the board agreed to donate our film projectors to Rancho El Chorro Outdoor School.
