

San Luis Obispo Camera Club COURIER FACT SHEET November 2011

Next Meeting
Thursday November 10 - 7 p. m.
THE MAIN PROGRAM WILL BE
TWO SHORT PROGRAMS

Anita Ritenour

Anita Ritenour grew up with photography, but it wasn't until her first DSLR four years ago that she became passionate. Her interests are in nature and landscape which took her to China and Africa. This presentation will consist of lighthouses in California and Oregon, except for the Split Rock Lighthouse on the north shore of Lake Superior in Minnesota.

Marlin Harms

Join Marlin Harms on a wet tour through various waterways, droplets and water effects entitled "The Color of Water." Besides his interest in bird and flower photography, Marlin has a special attraction to the effects of light on subject matter. This collection is from years of shooting in numerous locations, many local, but others from the Rocky Mountains, the Pacific Northwest and Central America.

Field Trip Show Malcolm Carlaw will show images from the September 10 trip entitled Creston Classic Rodeo and Chapel Hill at Sunset. The image of the month from Santa Barbara Fiesta Days went to Pam Link.

Competition Nyla James and James Springmeyer volunteered to head up the club's Competition activities. A big thanks to them and to Jenn Lawrence who led the group for three years.

At the competition on October 13, 81 images were submitted for judge Jonathan Roberts to critique. His credentials may be found at bluephoto.biz. The results were:
