Next Meeting
Thursday August 11 - 7 p.m.
MAIN PROGRAM

"People of the World" Join Jon and Gloria Lomax on their 35,000 mile odyssey visiting five continents, 28 countries and 45 ports-of-call in 110 days. See amazing Moai statues on Easter Island, the 3,000 year-old ruins of Petra, Jordan and the ancient sites of Karnak and Luxor in Egypt. Gaze upon the world's tallest bronze Buddha and tallest building. Theirs is the first cruise ship to land in Madang, Papua New Guinea, in over five years.

Field Trip Show Karen Peterson will show images from the Renaissance Festival in July. From our workshop on Making Photography Personal, the image of the month went to Ronnie Goyette.

Show and Tell The challenge for September is "Keep it Simple." Members may bring 3 images on any topic, of course.

Photo Opps • Pinedorado Days in Cambria, 9/3-5, cambriachamber.org • Airport Day in Paso Robles, 9/10, pasoairstow.org • I Madonnari in SLO, 9/10-11 • The Bunny Festival, 9/25 in Santa Barbara, bunssb.org

Competition Eighty seven images were submitted at the August competition. The score results were:

Heather Craig and Beth Sargent received perfect scores for the evening with 27 points each.

Mimi Ditchie and Pam Link tied for second with 26 points each.

Fifty four members responded to the competition survey, with 98% wanting competition to continue. The majority liked using the components of impact, technical and composition to total the final scores for images, and they preferred using outside judges when possible.

Next Field Trip
Saturday September 10
Creston Classic Rodeo 2 p.m.
& Chapel Hill 6 p.m.

Daylight barrel racing, steer riding, team roping...small town rodeo at its best. Sunset at Chapel Hill...a beautiful contrast of classic religious architecture and stark landscape. The schedule and directions are on the web site. Malcolm Carlaw is show director.
